With cooking holidays proliferating around the globe, you could be grilling fresh fish in a Portuguese mansion in Goa, shopping in a souk outside the rose-red city of Petra, or exploring Andalucian cooking in Seville.

All of these are laid on by On The Menu, which offers courses around the world, including Mexico, Morocco, Australia and Vietnam. Tutors are trained chefs or locals steeped in their native culinary tradition. Courses from £345 including hotel accommodation, based on two sharing. Contact 08708 998844; www.holidayonthemenu.com
